

How to Run a Successful Pub

Want to understand more about running your own pub before you invest your hard earned money?

Want to gain the qualifications needed to run your business?

Want to make your mistakes before it costs you money?

We will put you into one of our pubs where you can learn on the job skills as you go along, at the same time, we will put you through the training that you will need to run a successful business.

This will include the following:

CIEH Basic Food Hygiene examination and HACCP Training
(1 day course @ £75 per delegate)

BII Award in Beer and Cellar Quality Examination
(1 day course @ £70 per delegate)

BII Introduction to Licensed retail Operations examination
(3 day course £270 per delegate)

BII Personal Licence Examination
(£150 per delegate)

Or £500 for all the above in one week discounted to £750 for two delegates in the same week.
